

Open For Business: Filling Your Workforce Needs

Creating Energy Conference – Fort St. John
April 21, 2026

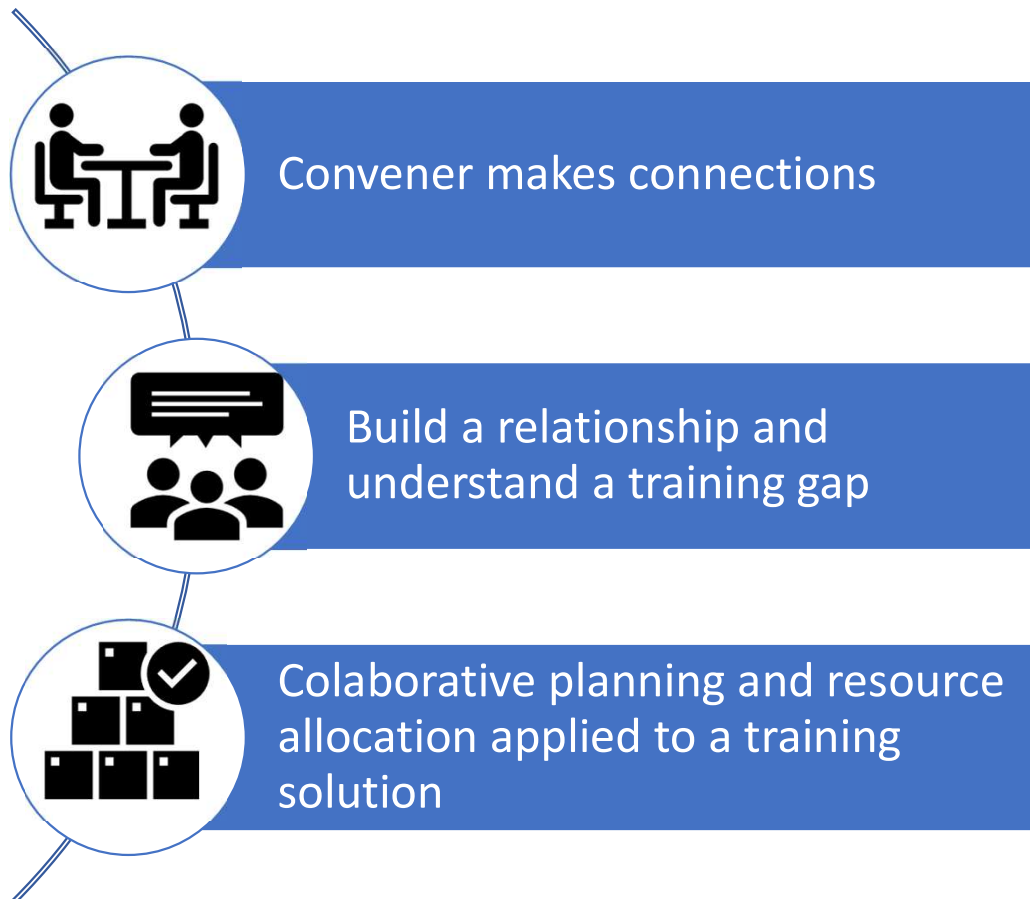

Jenn Simmons – CEO, Forefront Energy

Rod Cork – Dean, Trades and Apprenticeship

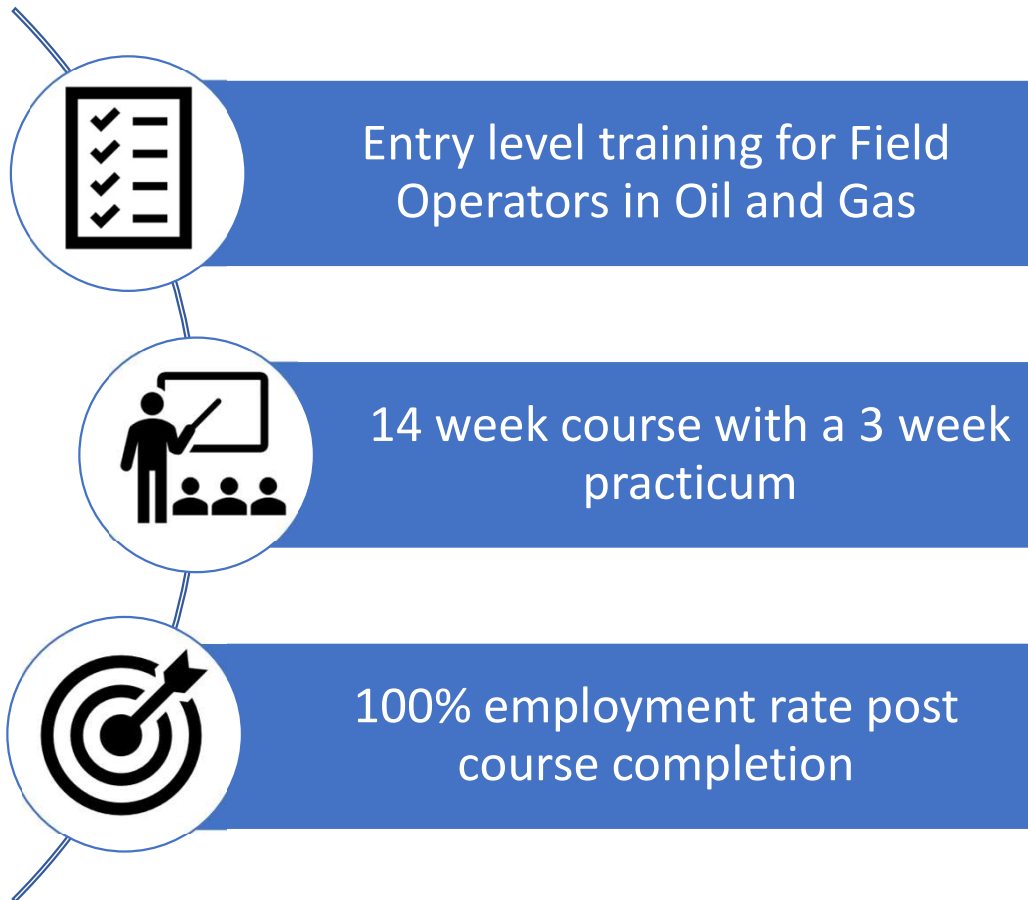

Co-creation in real time to fill a workforce need: A case study.

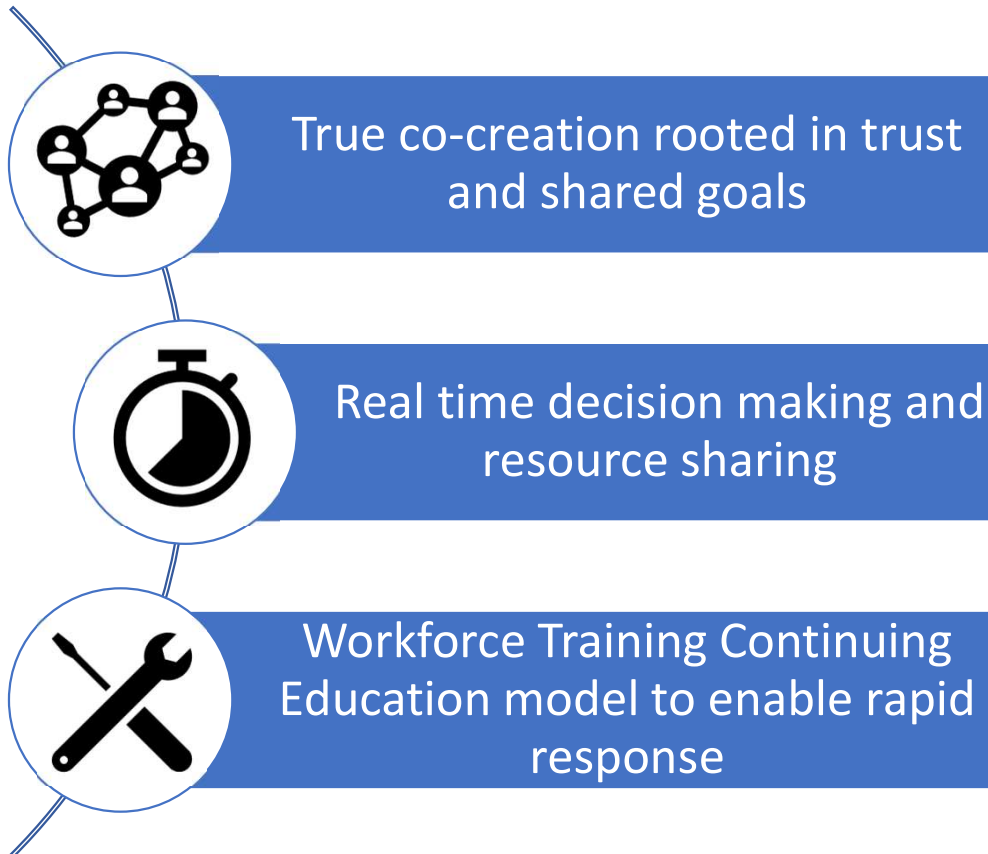

Sharing a mutual challenge

The solution: Field Operations Specialist – Hydrocarbon Resources (FOSHR)

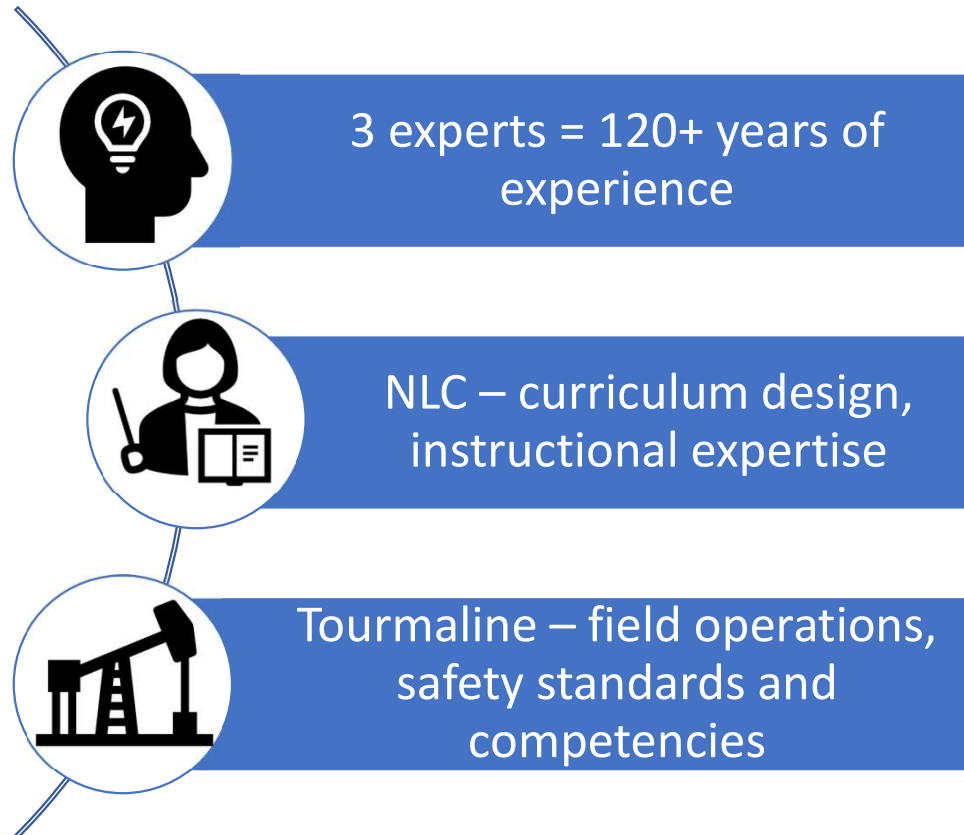

A new way of working: co-creation

Building trust: the foundation of rapid collaboration

The power of expertise: Faculty and Field Supervisors

So, what else?

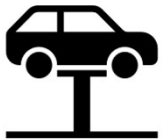

- If you could identify one area where you could benefit from a collaboration like this what would it be?

- Office skills?
- Safety Training?
- Upskilling?

- Management or Emerging Leader training?
- Sciences, Literacy or IT?

Thank you!

We want our next collaboration to include you – we are open for business at NLC!
